

ONLINE FAMILY CARER COMMUNITY

JULY'S MEETING

- Future care - Ongoing need for clear information and planning around future care, particularly in the event of a parent's death
- Specialist councillors - Parents are finding it difficult to locate knowledgeable specialist councillors who understand SEND parenting. If you are looking for specialist councillors, you may find the Counselling Directory useful
- Care complexities - Complexities when care is funded by a different local authority, including delays, missed opportunities, and additional family stress
- Potential political changes - Concerns about future funding structures and the impact of political changes on services
- Staff difficulties - Ongoing difficulties in recruiting and retaining appropriately skilled and motivated support staff
- Social care frustrations - Frustrations around professionalism and communication within social care services
- Aging transition - Desire for clearer guidance on the transition from young person to adult services - including key contacts and next steps
- Counselling resources - Signposting to relevant counselling resources, including tips for finding the right professional support.
